

SAN JOSE MERCURY

Thursday, June 23, 1864.

WATER.—We learn that Mr. McKenzie of the Foundry, intends to erect a large reservoir, and, by permission of the city, lay down water pipe through the principal streets, for the purpose of furnishing the public with pure water. He will also keep the various public cisterns constantly filled for use in case of fire.
