towns hereinbefore named and all public officers and employees of the state and of the city of Hartford are authorized and requested to cooperate with said commission and place at the disposal of the commission any advice or information which they may have which said commission may require relating to the subject-matter of this act. Following investigation the commission may draft a charter for said metropolitan district to be reported to the next session of the general assembly. It shall be provided in said charter that it shall become operative only upon its adoption by the city of Hartford and by one or more of the following towns: West Hartford, East Hartford, Bloomfield, Windsor, Wethersfield and Newington, the adoption by any of such other towns having been subsequently approved by the city of Hartford. Adoption or approval shall be expressed by majority vote at a meeting of the electors of the respective town or city duly warned. There shall be a further provision that it shall become operative as respects any one of the towns only after it shall have been expressly adopted by such town and further that the inclusion of such town in said district shall have been subsequently approved by said city of Hartford. The failure or refusal to adopt or approve shall not prevent further consideration and action.

Approved, June 22, 1927.

[House Bill No. 940.]

[347.]

AN ACT VALIDATING THE ISSUANCE OF STOCK OF THE GREENWICH WATER COMPANY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

The increase of the capital stock and the issue, prior to the passage of this act, of shares of all classes, within its authorized capital limits, by the directors and officers of the Greenwich Water Company, a Connecticut corporation, is validated and confirmed as fully paid and non-assessable stock, whether issued with or without requisite formalities and conditions, provided a duly authenticated certificate of said increase and issue, accompanied by the payment of the required franchise tax, shall be filed for record in the office of the secretary of the state on or before July 15, 1927.

Approved, June 6, 1927.
