VOLUME XX—1927 AND 1929

HARTFORD :
PUBLISHED BY THE STATE
1929

[House Bill No. 925.]

[407.]

AN ACT CONCERNING A MERGER OF THE GLENVILLE POWER AND WATER COMPANY WITH THE GREENWICH WATER COMPANY AND AUTHORIZING THE GREENWICH WATER COMPANY TO EXERCISE THE POWERS AND FRANCHISES GRANTED TO THE GLENVILLE POWER AND WATER COMPANY BY ITS CHARTER AND AMENDMENTS THERETO.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

The Glenville Power and Water Company, incorporated by a resolution approved June 11, 1903, is authorized to merge with and into the Greenwich Water Company, provided such merger shall be authorized by a majority vote of the outstanding stock of each corporation and shall be approved by the public utilities commission under the provisions of section 3651 of the general statutes. From and after such merger the Greenwich Water Company shall have and possess all the powers and franchises of The Glenville Power and Water Company, including those contained in said act incorporating The Glenville Power and Water Company and in all amendments thereto, provided, in lieu of the power to issue stock contained in said act, the Greenwich Water Company shall have power to issue its stock to the amount of the outstanding stock of The Glenville Power and Water Company in addition to stock of the Greenwich Water Company authorized to be issued by its charter and amendments thereto including any amendment enacted at the 1927 session of the legislature.

Approved, June 6, 1927.

[House Bill No. 905.]

[408.]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE RIGHTS OF THE GREENWICH WATER COMPANY AND THE NEW YORK, NEW HAVEN, AND HARTFORD RAILROAD COMPANY IN THE WATERS OF THE MIANUS RIVER.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

SECTION 1. The Greenwich Water Company is authorized, for the purposes of supplying water for public and private use, to enter upon and take by eminent domain, purchase or otherwise all or any part of the waters of the Mianus river and its tributaries, or any other rivers or waters in the town of Greenwich for the purpose of diverting the same at any place or places in the towns of Greenwich and Stamford; subject to the right of the New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroad Company to take water from the Mianus river for the use of its electric power generating plant at Cos Cob in such quantities as it may need up to the following maximum daily requirements: Until January 1, 1932, one million seven hundred thousand gallons; from January 1, 1932, to January 1, 1937, two million five hundred thousand gallons; from January 1, 1937, to January 1, 1942, three million five hundred thousand gallons and thereafter five million gallons; such water to be taken by said railroad company at a place or places within the limits of the reservoir created by its dam under construction under authority of an act authorizing the New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroad Company to build a dam at Cos Cob, approved June 6, 1913; and the Greenwich Water Company may construct, maintain and repair such reservoir or reservoirs as it may deem necessary to impound any water which it may take as aforesaid and may take by eminent domain, purchase or otherwise and possess such property, rights of flowage or other easements as it may deem necessary for the construction and maintenance of reservoirs, the protection of its watershed or any other corporate purpose. To that end said company may enter in and upon any land or water for the purpose of making surveys, and agree with the owner or owners of any property which may be required for the purposes of this act and the owner or owners of any property over which any rights of flowage or other easements may be required for the purposes of this act, and may agree with such owner or owners as to the compensation to be paid for such property, rights, franchises or easements, and, in case of disagreement between said company and any owner or owners as to the amount of compensation for damages which ought to be given or awarded to any person claiming to be injured in his estate by the doings of said company, or in case any owner shall be an infant or a married woman, or insane or absent from this state, or unknown, or the owner of a contingent or uncertain interest, any judge of the superior court may, on the application of either party, cause such notice to be given of such application as such judge shall see fit to prescribe, and such judge may appoint three disinterested persons to examine such property as is to be taken for the purposes hereof, or may be damaged by the doings of said company hereunder, and such persons, being duly sworn to the faithful and impartial performance of their duties, shall establish the amount of compensation which any and all owners shall receive and report the same in writing to the clerk of the superior court for Fairfield county to be by him recorded. Any judge of the superior court may thereupon confirm the doings of such appraisers and direct said company to pay the same in such manner as such judge may prescribe, in compensation for the property acquired or the injury done by said company, and, on compliance with the order of said judge, said company may proceed with the construction of its work without any liability to any further claim for compensation or damages.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from its passage as an amendment to the charters of the Greenwich Water Company and the New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroad Company and shall not require acceptance by either of said companies.

Approved, June 6, 1927.
