OF

THE STATE OF ILLINOIS,

PASSED AT THE

TWENTIETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

BEGUN AND HELD AT THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD,

JANUARY 5, 1857.

SPRINGFIELD:
LANPHER & WALKER, PRINTERS.
1857.

AN ACT to incorporate the Springfield Water Works Company. Feb. 16, 1857.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the people of the state of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That John T. Stuart, William B. Fonday, N. H. Ridgely, John W. Priest, Charles R. Hurst, John Williams and Jacob Bunn, and all such persons as are or may hereafter be associated with them, are constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The Springfield Water Works Company," with perpetual succession; and by that name are hereby made capable, in law or equity, of suing and being sued; to make and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be five thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each; and the said company are hereby empowered to increase their capital stock, at any time, not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars.

§ 3. Books of subscription for the capital stock of said corporation shall be opened, under the direction of the directors hereinafter named, subject to such rules and regulations as they shall prescribe; and the stock shall be considered personal property, and shall be assignable and transferable on the books of the company.

§ 4. The concerns of said company shall be managed by five directors, who shall be stockholders, and who shall hold their office for one year, and until others are chosen in their places; the directors shall be chosen, annually, on the first Monday of May, at such time of day and place in said city of Springfield, as directors for the time being shall appoint. The first election may be held on the first Monday of May, A. D. 1857. Two weeks' notice of such election shall be given, by a publication, at least once in each week, in two newspapers published in said city. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote upon each share of stock held by him or her for at least twenty days previous to an election. Voting shall be by ballot, and may be in person or by proxy.

§ 5. The directors shall annually appoint a president, secretary and treasurer, and such other officers as they may deem necessary, who shall hold their offices until others are appointed in their places; and they may make and ordain such by-laws and regulations as they may deem necessary and proper for the management of their business and for the accomplishment of the purposes of the corporation.

§ 6. The directors may require payment of subscriptions to the stock at such times and in such proportions as they may see fit, under the penalty of forfeiting all stock and previous payments thereon, and may sue for and recover all such subscriptions. Notice of the time and place of said payments shall be published for three weeks previous to said time, at least once in each week, in two newspapers published in the city.

First board of Directors.

§ 7. The persons named in the first section shall be the first directors, and shall hold their offices until the said first Monday of May, A. D. 1857, and until others are chosen in their places; and in case of vacancy in the directors, by reason of death or resignation of any director, or his ceasing to be a stockholder, it may be filled by the remaining directors until the next annual election, or until some other person shall be elected to fill the same. The directors herein named may appoint three persons, who shall be stockholders, to be inspectors at the first election, after which the stockholders shall choose three such inspectors at the annual elections. If no inspectors are chosen, the directors may appoint three from time to time. The directors may remove all officers appointed by them, and appoint others in their places, and fill all vacancies in the offices. If at any time an election of directors shall not take place on the day appointed by this act, the corporation shall not for that cause be dissolved, but an election may be held on another day in such manner as shall be prescribed by the directors or provided for by the by-laws.

Vacancies filled.

Purchase of property.

§ 8. For the purpose of supplying the said city of Springfield with pure and wholesome water, the said company may purchase, take and hold any real estate, and by their directors, agents, servants or other persons employed, may enter upon the land of any person or persons which may be necessary for said purpose; and may take the water from any springs, fountains, wells, rivers or lakes, and direct and carry the same to the said city; and may lay and construct any pipes, conduits, aqueducts, wells, reservoirs and other works or machinery necessary or proper for said purpose upon any land so entered upon, purchased, taken or held; and may enter upon any lands, streets, highways, roads, lanes or public squares through which they may deem it proper to convey the water from said springs, fountains, wells and rivers, and lay and construct any pipes, conduits or other works for that purpose, leaving the said lands, streets, highways, roads, lanes and public squares in the same condition, as nearly as may be, as they were before the said entry.

Map and survey.

§ 9. Before entering, taking or using any land for the purposes of this act, the directors of this company shall cause a survey and map to be made of the lands intended to be taken or entered upon for any of said purposes, and by which the land of such owner or occupant intended to be taken or used shall be designated, and which map shall be signed by the surveyor or engineer making the same, and by the president of said company, and be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of Sangamon county. The company by any two of its officers, agents or servants may enter upon any land for the purpose of making any examination and of making said survey and map.

§ 10. In case the said company cannot agree with the said owners and occupants of any lands or water, intended to be taken or used as aforesaid, for the purchase thereof, the directors may proceed and acquire the right to the same, in the same manner, terms and conditions as provided by the act entitled "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852. Right of way.

§ 11. In laying pipes, conduits or aqueducts, or constructing or erecting works in the streets, lanes or public squares of the city of Springfield, the company shall conform to such regulations as the common council of said city may prescribe. Pipes, &c.

§ 12. The said directors of said company may establish rules and regulations for and concerning the conduct of all such persons as shall use the water from their works, so far as respects the preservation and use and restraining the waste thereof, and may thereby impose penalties and forfeitures for any violation of said rules and regulations, so that such penalty and forfeitures shall not in any case exceed ten dollars, which penalties may be recovered, with costs, in the name of the company, before any justice of the peace of said city. Said rules and regulations shall be published for three successive weeks in two newspapers printed in said city, and a copy of said rules and regulations, certified by the president or secretary of said company, with affidavits of the publication of the same, made by any of the publishers of said papers, shall be received as evidence in all courts and places. Rules and law of corporation.

§ 13. The said company shall furnish water to the city of Springfield for the purpose of extinguishing fires, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between them and the common council of said city. The said company may make any agreements, contracts, grants and leases, for the sale, use and distribution of water that may be agreed upon between said company and any person or persons, associations and corporations, which agreements, contracts, grants and leases shall be valid and effectual in law.
