CHAPTER 1261.

AN ACT to incorporate the Nashville Aqueduct.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That Charles F. Gove, Aaron P. Hughes, Robert Reed, John H. Gage, and Russell E. Dewey, their associates, successors and assigns, be and they hereby are made a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Nashville Aqueduct, for the purpose of bringing water into Nashville and Nashua in subterranean pipes, for the supply of the inhabitants thereof, and are hereby invested with all the powers and privileges incident to corporations of a similar nature.

SEC. 2. The capital stock of said corporation shall consist of a sum not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The annual meeting of the stockholders of said corporation shall be holden at the time and place prescribed by the by-laws, at which meeting not less than three nor more than five directors shall be chosen by ballot. The directors may call special meetings of the stockholders whenever they shall deem it expedient, giving such notice as the corporation by their by-laws shall direct. Aaron P. Hughes and Russell E. Dewey, or either of them, may call the first meeting of the corporation, by giving personal notice thereof in writing to each of the other persons named herein, seven days at least prior thereto, at which meeting associates may be admitted, by-laws adopted, and a board of directors elected, together with such other officers and agents as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the objects of this act.

SEC. 3. Said corporation is hereby empowered to purchase and hold real estate not exceeding in value the sum of six thousand dollars; and to erect, construct and maintain such buildings and other works as may be necessary for carrying into effect the purposes of this act; and said corporation, for the purposes aforesaid, may dig ditches and break up ground in any street or highway through which it may be necessary for said aqueduct to pass, for the purpose of placing therein such pipes as may be necessary for completing said aqueduct, and to relay and repair the same when necessary, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the selectmen of the town in which said street or highway may be situated, for the safety of the citizens and the security of the public travel.

SEC. 4. If any person shall wantonly or maliciously injure said aqueduct, or any of the works which may be erected by said corporation for completing or repairing the same, he shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, and shall be liable to pay treble damages to said corporation, to be recovered in an action on the case before any court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage, and may be altered, amended or repealed, whenever the public good shall require.

Approved, June 19, 1852.

CHAPTER 1262.

AN ACT in amendment of an act to establish the Milford Cotton and Woolen Manufacturing Corporation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That the Milford Cotton and Woolen Manufacturing Corporation be, and they hereby are, authorized to take and assume the name of the Milford Manufacturing Company; Provided always that the Legislature may alter, amend or repeal the act to which this is an amendment, whenever in their opinion the public good may require it.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect on and after the first day of August next.

Approved, June 19, 1852.

CHAPTER 1263.

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That William L. Foster be allowed the sum of three hundred and sixty-nine dollars and ten cents, in full of his account; and that Morrill & Silsby be allowed the sum of four hundred and thirty-seven dollars and fifty-one cents, in full of their account, and that the same be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, June 19, 1852.
