

APR 5 1917

L A W S

OF THE

STATE OF NEW-YORK

PASSED AT THE

THIRTY-SIXTH SESSION

OF THE

LEGISLATURE,

Begun and held at the City of Albany,

THE SECOND DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1812.

A L B A N Y :
PRINTED FOR S. SOUTHWICK,
PRINTER TO THE STATE.

.....

1813.

agreeable to the last tax list of said town; and that each of the said towns shall forever thereafter maintain its own poor.

CHAP. XXXI.

An ACT relative to the Albany Water Works.

Passed February 12, 1813.

I. BE it enacted by the people of the state of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That ^{Stock to consist of 1,600 shares.} the stock of the Albany water works shall consist of sixteen hundred shares of fifty dollars each; that each of the present shares be divided into two shares, on each one of which (after the payment of the money heretofore required to be paid on each share shall have been made) forty dollars shall be deemed to have been paid; that the present proprietors may within ten days after having been notified of the passing of this act by the trustees of the said Albany water works, become subscribers for any number of shares not exceeding the number of old shares they shall respectively hold after having been so divided, paying at the time of such subscription five dollars on each new share so subscribed; that the shares remaining unsubscribed for at the expiration of the said ten days shall be offered for subscription by the said trustees, under such regulations as they shall prescribe; that no money shall be required of the proprietors of the old shares until the proprietors of the new shares shall have been called upon to pay to the amount of forty dollars on each new share; after which all the proprietors shall be equally subject to requisitions to the amount of their shares; that all expences of repairing and supporting the present works be borne exclusively by the proprietors of the old shares, and all dividends be made to them exclusively until the water shall have been received for use into the reservoir of the said trustees through the permanent range of conduits intended to be constructed from the sources of the said water to the said reservoir, and let into the distributing conduits.

Former
privileges
continued.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and singular the rights, privileges, and immunities heretofore granted to the trustees and company of the Albany water works, shall be, and the same are hereby continued until the next annual election of the trustees of the same, and shall be, and the same are hereby confirmed, any non-user, mis-user or laches having heretofore occurred notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any annual election shall not in future be held on the day for that purpose appointed, the same may be held on any other day with like effect as if held on such day.

CHAP. XXXII.

An ACT to lay out and improve a road from Hadley Landing, to intersect the great road leading from Glen's Falls to the Schroon Lake.

Passed February 12, 1813.

I. BE it enacted by the people of the state of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That Jeremy Rockwel, Duncan Cameron, and Berry Fenton, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they or any two of them, are hereby authorized and empowered to lay out a public road four rods wide, in as direct a route as the face of the country will admit, beginning at the center of the highway opposite the dwelling-house of Isaac Woodworth, at Hadley Landing, thence northerly on the west side of the Hudson river to the Sacondaga river, at or near its junction with the said Hudson river, thence across the Sacondaga river, thence northerly on the west side of the Hudson river so far as to pass the mouth of the Schroon river, thence across the Hudson river, thence to the great road leading from Glen's Falls to the Schroon Lake.

Commis's
to lay out the road.

They shall take an oath.

II. And be it further enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid before they enter upon the duties of their office, shall respectively take and subscribe before some justice of the peace, an oath faithfully and impartially to execute the trust reposed in them in and by virtue of this act, and the said oaths shall by the