

---

The Water Works Company are the occasion of much grumbling by reason of the disturbance of streets and crosswalks, in laying their pipes. The reason for laying the pipes now, is that the hydrants may be in effective condition in case of fires during the winter. We think the laudable intentions of the Company a sufficient excuse for whatever trouble may have been caused thus far in the excavations made.

---