

---

 The water supplied to the patrons of the Auburn Water Works Company is pure and agreeable to the taste. It is considered fully equal to that taken from the wells and springs of the city.

---