
PEAT.—In excavating on State street for laying the pipes of the Auburn Water Works Company, the workmen this morning turned up a rich layer of peat, of a consistency nearly substantial enough for fuel. With some labor it might be made available.
