

---

 A small army of laborers, armed with pick and spade, are entrenching Genesee-st. to-day, preparatory to planting their batteries in the shape of the long, black iron tubes, through which the Water Works Company design furnishing the city with pure water. The work of laying the mains is being rapidly pushed forward.

---