Chap 81.

AN ACT relative to the water debt of the village of Ballston Spa.

PASSED March 17, 1870; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Payment of
bonds.

SECTION 1. The trustees of the village of Ballston Spa are authorized and required to provide for the payment of the several bonds that have been or shall be issued by the president and trustees of said village, within the limitation and for the purposes specified in the act entitled "An act to amend and consolidate the several acts relative to the village of Ballston Spa," passed April twelve, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, passed May ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and also in the act entitled "An act relative to the village of Ballston Spa," passed April twenty-nine, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, as provided in the sixth section of the said first mentioned act. But the said officers are authorized from time to time to borrow on the credit of the said village, and issue new bonds, to be paid as provided in the said section, for the purpose of raising money for the payment of so much of the principal of the water debt of said village, falling due in any year as shall exceed one thousand dollars, and so that no more than one thousand dollars of the said principal, together with the interest on the whole debt, shall be required to be annually collected and paid. The proceedings of the village meetings, at which the said water debt was voted, are hereby ratified and legalized, so far as relates to the said debt.

Issue of new bonds to pay water debt.

When payable.

Vote of village meetings legalized.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
