OF THE

STATE OF NEW YORK,

PASSED AT THE

1437

EIGHTY-SEVENTH SESSION

OF THE

LEGISLATURE,

BEGUN JANUARY FIFTH, AND ENDED APRIL TWENTY-THIRD,
1864, IN THE CITY OF ALBANY.

ALBANY :

VAN BENTHUYSEN'S STEAM PRINTING HOUSE.

1864.

Chap. 107.

AN ACT in relation to the Rensselaer and Saratoga Railroad.

Passed April 1, 1864.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Rensselaer and Saratoga railroad is hereby authorized in making up its trains at the Waterford junction, or Saratoga Springs, and running the same over its road, or any road leased by it, to place one car containing baggage or express freight in any part of its train after a baggage car shall have been placed in front of the passenger cars, and the same shall not be deemed an offence within the thirty-eighth section of the act to authorize the formation of railroad corporations, and to regulate the same, passed April second eighteen hundred and fifty.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 108.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the village of Batavia.

Passed April 2, 1864; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The trustees of the village of Batavia shall have power to appropriate from any of the moneys which shall be raised by said village for general purposes and for highway purposes, a sum not exceeding three thousand dollars for the purpose of providing a permanent supply of water for the extinguishment of fires in said village.

§ 2. The trustees of said village in addition to the powers which they now possess, shall have power:

First. To prescribe from time to time, by ordinance, the limits in said village within which wooden buildings shall not be erected or placed without their permission granted by the affirmative vote of four-fifths of all the trustees of said village. Every wooden building afterwards erected or placed contrary to such ordinance, is hereby declared to be a common nuisance, and may be abated as such; and every person who shall erect or place a wooden building within the limits prescribed, in violation of any such ordinance, shall forfeit one hundred dollars, and in addition, the sum of twenty-five dollars for each week said building shall be continued; which shall be recovered for the use of said village.

Second. To renew the warrant of the collector of said village from time to time.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 109.

AN ACT to amend the act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to revise, amend and consolidate the several acts relating to the village of Whitesborough,'" passed February twelfth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine.

Passed April 2, 1864; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section forty-three of the act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act to revise, amend and consolidate the several acts relating to the village of Whitesborough," passed February twelfth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

§ 43. The police justice shall within the limits of said village and not elsewhere, have the same powers and jurisdiction, and be subject to the same duties and

Powers and jurisdiction of police justice.
