annum, payable annually; and every instalment with accrued interest shall be a first lien upon the property and franchises of the said railway company until fully paid.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 112.

AN ACT to legalize the action of the board of trustees and of the electors of the village of Canajoharie, in relation to the issue of the bonds of such village for fifty thousand dollars to defray a portion of the expense of establishing a system of water works therein, and to legalize such bonds and the issuance thereof, and to provide for the payment of the same.

Became a law May 6, 1911, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. All proceedings taken by the board of trustees of the village of Canajoharie, New York, in relation to borrowing on the credit of such village, the additional sum of fifty thousand dollars, and of issuing bonds of such village therefor, and of expending the money so to be borrowed toward defraying in part the expense of establishing a system of water works for supplying the inhabitants of such village with water, and all other proceedings had or undertaken by the said board of trustees in any way relating thereto, are hereby legalized, ratified and confirmed and made of the same force and legal effect as though all of the provisions of the law applicable to the issuing of bonds for such purposes had been strictly and fully complied with. The proposition voted for and adopted at the special election of the qualified electors held in and for such village on the twelfth day of September, nineteen hundred and ten, appropriating the said sum of fifty thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, and providing for the raising of such sum or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of completing such system of water works, for the supplying of the village of Canajoharie and its inhabitants with water, and providing further for the issuing of the bonds or other obligations of such village to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, for such purposes, as well as all proceedings had in relation thereto prior to and including such special election and subsequent thereto, notwithstanding the omission of any lawful requirement from such proposition or resolution submitted to and adopted by the taxpayers of such village, are hereby legalized, ratified and confirmed. The board of trustees of such village are hereby authorized to advertise, sell and issue the said bonds to the amount of fifty thousand dollars as provided by law, and when so advertised, sold and issued, the same are hereby declared to be legal and valid obligations of such village of Canajoharie, and each and every act of such village and of the board of trustees thereof heretofore done, undertaken or begun in pursuance of the objects of or any object of this act are, and each of them is, ratified and declared valid.

Proceedings relative to bond issue legalized.

Bond issue

Tax for payment.

§ 2. The board of trustees of the village of Canajoharie, in the manner provided by law, shall cause to be raised annually by the levy and collection of taxes upon the taxable property of such village, such sums, which, with the revenues derived from such water works system properly applicable thereto, shall be sufficient to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due and payable, until said bonds and the interest thereof are fully paid.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 113.

AN ACT to amend the Lackawanna city charter, in relation to definitions.

Became a law May 6, 1911, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

Accepted by the City.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section seven of chapter five hundred and seventy-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act to incorporate the city of Lackawanna," is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909, ch.
174, § 7
