bonds shall be payable in twenty-seven equal annual installments the first of which shall be due three years from the date of issue. They shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum and shall be negotiated for not less than their par value. They shall be sold on sealed proposals upon notice published in each newspaper actually printed in the village, and in such other newspapers as the board of trustees may determine, and posted in three public places in the village, at least ten days before the sale, to the person who will take them at the lowest rate of interest. They shall be consecutively numbered from one to the highest number issued and the clerk shall keep a record of the number of each bond, its date, amount, rate of interest, when and where payable and the purchaser thereof, or the person to whom they are issued. Section five of the general municipal law shall not apply to such bonds. There shall be annually raised by taxation in such village a sum sufficient to pay the principal and interest of such bonds as the same shall accrue.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Chap. 195.

AN ACT to amend section fifty-eight of the code of civil procedure relative to the graduates of law schools in the state.

Became a law, April 12, 1905, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section fifty-eight of the code of civil procedure is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Clerkship
of graduates
from certain
law schools,
rules relative to.

§ 58. Nothing contained in the last two sections prevents the court of appeals from dispensing, in the rules established by it, with the whole or any part of the stated period of clerkship, required from an applicant, or with the examination where the applicant is a graduate of the Albany law school, being the law department of the Union university, or of the law department of the university of the city of New York, or of the law school of Columbia college, or of the law school of the university of Buffalo or the New York law school or of the college of law,
