III. And be it further enacted, That the by-laws and resolutions of the said company, as well as of the directors thereof, shall be entered at full length in their book of minutes, for the inspection of the stockholders, and that such by-laws and resolutions shall be of no effect until so entered : And further, That it shall be lawful for the president, and a majority of the said directors, to call a meeting of the said directors, and to designate the place of such meeting, as often as in their opinion the interest and business of the said company shall require such meetings.

CHAP. LI.

AN ACT to amend the act entitled, "an act vesting further powers in the trustees of the village of Newburgh."

Passed March 19, 1819.

I. BE it enacted by the people of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That the trustees of the village of Newburgh, for the time being, be empowered to raise, annually, by tax, upon property situate in the said village, in their opinion benefitted by the introduction of water by aqueducts in the village, and upon persons using the said water, a sum equal to the interest of the money expended by the trustees in so bringing water into the said village, which shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as other taxes in said village are by law assessed and collected ; and that the money so raised shall be applied towards the contingent expenses of the village.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said trustees shall exact and receive, each year, for every license by them granted to any person to retail strong or spirituous liquors, to be drank in his or her store or shop, a sum not less than twenty-five, nor more than fifty-dollars ; and that the money so raised shall be applied by the said trustees, in the manner prescribed in the preceding section.

III. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in the act entitled, "an act to organize the militia," passed April 21st, 1818, shall be so construed as to compel the firemen in the said village to do military duty, except in cases of war, insurrection or rebellion : Provided however, That the said trustees shall, at no time, enrol or commission more than thirty men to each fire engine actually kept fit for use, in the said village.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the firemen belonging to any of the companies, in the said village of Newburgh, be and the same are hereby discharged from all fines imposed on them for neglect of military duty by any brigade court martial appointed by virtue of the said act entitled, "an act to organize the militia."
