1870.

Chap. 326.

AN ACT to amend an act for supplying the village of Plattsburgh with pure and wholesome water, passed April seventeenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.

PASSED April 21, 1870; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of trustees of the village of Plattsburgh are hereby authorized and empowered to raise by loan, from time to time, the sum of thirty thousand dollars, in pursuance of the powers granted them in and by chapter two hundred and forty-eight of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "An act for supplying the village of Plattsburgh with pure and wholesome water," or so much thereof as may be necessary to complete the works for supplying said village with water, in addition to the amount authorized to be raised by said act, and to issue bonds, and assess and collect money to pay the principal and interest of the bonds so to be issued, in the manner provided in said act. And said trustees are hereby authorized to sell or negotiate said bonds, but at not less than the par value thereof, and to use the avails thereof in payment of the debts and liabilities incurred or to be incurred in the matter of supplying said village with water. And the commissioners appointed in pursuance of said act shall, as often as required, and at least once in every two months, make and deliver to said trustees a full, complete and detailed report of each and every of their acts, contracts, proceedings and disbursements; and all of the acts, contracts and agreements of the said commissioners hereafter made shall be subject to the supervision, ratification and approval of said board of trustees.

Village trustees may loan moneys for water works.

May issue bonds therefor.

Avails from sale of bonds, how applied.

Commissioners to report to trustees.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
