
MORE PEAT.—The discoveries of peat for fuel continue to be made. Some specimens were shown us this morning which came from Gates, scarcely more than a mile from the western limits of the city. The article burns well and is solid. The extent of the beds is not yet known.
