

---

SENSIBLE REMARKS.—A correspondent of the Democrat, writing upon the water question, says that he is acquainted with every foot of ground traversed by the outlets of Honeoye and of Hemlock Lakes, and would sooner drink the water of the Genesee River, filtered through a gravel bank, than that of these outlets. He scorns the idea of the water being brought here in the wooden pentstocks laid down by the old Company and sold at auction for a trifle.

---