

THE COURTS.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

FRIDAY, April 18, 1873.

On motion of Mr. P. Phillips, Frank Loomis, of New York city, was admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor of this court.

On motion of Mr. J. C. Cochrane, Jesse Shepherd, Esq., of Rochester, N. Y., was admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor of this court.

No. 370. The United States, appellants, vs. Joseph Reynes. This cause was submitted on printed arguments by Mr. Attorney General Williams and Mr. Assistant Attorney General Hill, of counsel for the appellants, and by Mr. L. Janin for the appellee.

No. 370. The United States, appellants, vs. Joseph Reynes. Appeal from the District Court of the United States for the district of Louisiana. Ordered by the court that the decree of the said Circuit Court in this cause be affirmed.

No. 249. The Merchants' Exchange National Bank, appellant, vs. John Thompson, bankrupt; No. 250. Erastus F. Mead, appellant, vs. John Thompson, bankrupt. The motion to dismiss these causes was submitted on printed arguments by Mr. E. More and Mr. A. J. Parker, in support thereof, and by Mr. E. C. Benedict in opposition thereto.

No. 659. The City of Rochester, plaintiff in error, vs. Roswell Hart et al. The motion to dismiss this cause was submitted on printed arguments by Mr. W. F. Cogswell, in support of the same, and by Mr. James C. Cochrane in opposition thereto.

No. 659. The City of Rochester, plaintiff in error, vs. Roswell Hart et al. The motion for an injunction in this cause was argued by Mr. James C. Cochrane in support of the same, and by Mr. W. F. Cogswell in opposition thereto.