

Congress Spring.

SEVERAL unjust reports having been circulated relative to the mode of furnishing water at this Spring, the proprietor thinks it due to himself and the public, to say, that all PITCHERS, JUGS and KEGS for family use, will be filled gratuitously by the boys in attendance, and that any remuneration given to the boys, will be exclusively for their benefit.

JOHN CLARKE.

Saratoga Springs, July 1, 1826.