AN ACT to incorporate "the Cleveland Aqueduct Company."

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That Horace Perry and his associates, for the time being, their successors and assigns be, and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic for the purpose of supplying the village of Cleveland, in the county of Cuyahoga, with good and wholesome water, by the name of "the Cleveland Aqueduct Company," and by that name shall be and are hereby made capable in law of contracting and being contracted with, of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded in all courts or elsewhere; may have a common seal, and the same may alter or renew at pleasure; and shall be capable of taking and holding any estate, real, personal, or mixed, and of disposing of the same.

Sec. 2. That it shall be lawful for the said company to enter into and upon the lands and tenements of any person and to make and construct in, over, or thro' the same such cisterns, reservoirs, aqueducts, pipes, and water courses as may be necessary to effect the purposes of this incorporation, doing no unnecessary damage to said lands and tenements: Provided that said company shall pay to the proprietors of all such lands and tenements such compensation for any and all such damages as shall be assessed by three disinterested persons to be appointed by the court of common pleas of said county of Cuyahoga.

Sec. 3. That the said company shall also have power and are hereby authorized to enter upon, dig, and excavate the streets, alleys, and public squares of said county and village, in suitable places for the erecting and maintaining such suitable cisterns, reservoirs, aqueducts, pipes, and water courses as may be necessary for effecting the objects of this incorporation: Provided the same be done with as little detriment and obstruction to the public convenience as the nature of said works will admit, and are left in good repair and condition.

Sec. 4. That if any person or persons shall wilfully or maliciously break down injure or impair any of the machinery, engines, works, or devices of said company whatsoever, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay to the said company double the amount of damages sustained by such injury to be recovered by action of debt in any court having cognizance thereof.

Sec. 5. That the said company shall have power to lease, sell, contract, and receive pay for all the water to be so as aforesaid brought into said village at such price as may be agreed upon by the parties to such contracts: Provided, that the cisterns, reservoirs, and outlets of such water shall always be free and open for the purpose of extinguishing fires in said village without any charge therefor.
