1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of Virginia, That John H. Price, C. C. Bell, Thomas E. Camp, R. P. W. Jones, and C. C. Gaver, of the town of Hillsboro', and such other persons as they may associate with them, and their successors, are hereby created a body corporate and politic under the name and style of the Hillsboro' water company, and by that name may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, plead and be impleaded, in all proper courts and places; have a common seal, and change the same at pleasure, and make all necessary by-laws and regulations for the government of said company, not inconsistent with the laws of this State.

2. The purposes and objects for which said company is incorporated, and which it is authorized to perform, is the re-organization of the old Hillsboro' water company, the incorporators herein named being the present owners of the property owned by the original incorporators, the repairing and laying of new pipes, main and lateral, to carry water from the spring known as Hill Tom to suitable points in the town of Hillsboro', and for these purposes it shall have all the grants, rights, privileges, and franchises necessary to carry into effect the purposes, objects, and intents of said company.

3. There shall be five directors for said company, who shall be chosen annually. One of their number shall be chosen president by the others, and said board may appoint proper officers, agents, and employees, and fix their compensation: provided that for the first twelve months after the passage of this act the first five persons named herein, or whoever may be substituted for them, shall be the directors of said company until their successors be elected and qualified.

4. It shall be lawful for the said company to sell and dispose of its water rights to the town of Hillsboro', or the inhabitants thereof, or other persons, at such rates as may be agreed upon by the parties.

5. This act shall be in force from its passage.
