PRINTED BY THOMAS RITCHIE,
Printer for the Commonwealth.

their respective offices: Provided, however, That the expenditures for all the said repairs and improvements, shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand five hundred dollars. Sum appropriated.

2. Be it further enacted, That any contract made by the superintendent, under the authority of this act, shall be submitted to the governor and be approved by him, before any such contract shall be binding on the commonwealth, and that it shall be the duty of the said superintendent to superintend the execution of the work hereby authorized, and see that the same be faithfully performed according to contract. All accounts for the repairs and improvements hereby required to be made, shall be certified by the superintendent of public buildings and approved by the governor, whereupon they shall be paid out of the treasury on the auditor's warrant for the same. Contracts and accounts to be approved by the governor.

3. This act shall be in force from and after the passage thereof. Commencement.

CHAP. V.—An act making a further appropriation for completing the repairs to the senate chamber.

[Passed December 9th, 1831.]

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That a further sum, not exceeding four hundred dollars, be appropriated out of the treasury of the commonwealth, for the purpose of making and completing such repairs of the senate chamber, and procuring such furniture therefor as the senate may by resolution direct and cause to be made. Additional appropriation for repairing senate chamber.

2. This act shall be in force from the passage thereof. Commencement.

CHAP. VI.—An act providing for a supply of water for the use of the Penitentiary and the public buildings on the capitol square.

[Passed March 3d, 1832.]

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly, That the governor of the commonwealth be, and he is hereby authorized, to contract with the corporation of Richmond, or with any other person or persons, for a regular supply of water for the use of the public jail and penitentiary-house, and for the public buildings on the capitol square; the water to be conveyed through iron pipes properly laid for the purpose. Provision for supplying penitentiary and capitol with water.

2. Be it further enacted, That if a contract for the supply aforesaid be made with the corporation of the city of Richmond, the said corporation shall have all the powers and privileges, for the acquisition of land, given in the act passed March the twenty-third, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, entitled, "an act concerning the water works in the city of Richmond."

3. Be it further enacted, That the expenses necessarily incurred in making said contract and executing the necessary work for the purpose aforesaid, shall be paid out of any money in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated. Expense, how defrayed.

4. This act shall be in force from and after its passage. Commencement.
