

A CENTURY OF MILWAUKEE WATER

An Historical Account of the Origin and Development
Of the Milwaukee Water Works

By

Elmer W. Becker

Former Superintendent
Milwaukee Water Works
1964-1972
Milwaukee, Wisconsin
1974

Chapter I	Original Water Works	1
Chapter II	Intakes and Cribs	12
Chapter III	North Point Pumping Station.	19
Chapter IV	The North Point Water Tower.	39
Chapter V	The Kilbourn Park Reservoir.	42
Chapter VI	Water Distribution System	50
Chapter VII	Booster Stations	71
Chapter VIII	Riverside Pumping Station	92
Chapter IX	Howard Avenue Pumping Station	103
Chapter X	System Primary Pumping Capacity	105
Chapter XI	Disinfection and Purification	107
Chapter XII	Texas Avenue Pumping Station	129
Chapter XIII	1957-1971 Major Improvement Program	131
Chapter XIV	Lawn Sprinkling Restrictions	136
Chapter XV	Control Center	140
Chapter XVI	Elevated Tanks	142
Chapter XVII	Air Conditioning Restrictions	144
Chapter XVIII	Meters and Metering	155
Chapter XIX	Service to Suburbs and Other Out of City Service.	168
Chapter XX	Water Rates	181
Chapter XXI	Water Waste	220
Chapter XXII	Water Works Civilian Defense	225
Chapter XXIII	General Data.	227
Chapter XXIV	Storage Yards	241
Chapter XXV	Financing the Water Works	242
Chapter XXVI	Organization.	259
Chapter XXVII	Biographical Sketches of Superintendents	307
Chapter XXVIII	Executives and Supervisors	319
Chapter XXIX	Milwaukee's Battered Water Crib; Memorial to Tragedy and Heroism.	327